

- Discussions on the points of the report and the second issue of the Round Table.

Topics of discussion on the second issue:

- Culture and education;
- Implementation of Nicholas Roerich's appeal 'Peace through Culture' is a way to cultivate a Homo Spiritualis;
- The role of education and upbringing in the formation of man's readiness for Peace;
- The teacher-disciple cooperation for the sake of knowledge and peace;
- Lessons of peace and culture in school.

Other points within the framework of the key topic of the Round Table can be discussed.

Time and Venue: The Non-governmental Museum named after Nicholas Roerich (3/5 Maly Znamensky Lane, Moscow), September 22, 2014.

Coffee will be served during the breakss between the Round Table sessions 2-3 pm.

We are kindly inviting:

1. Representatives of UNESCO, UNO and other international organizations;
2. Representatives of the RF State Duma, Federation Council, RF President's Council for Culture, Public Chamber, RF Ministry of Foreign Affairs, RF Ministry of Culture, RF Ministry of Education, RF Government, Moscow Government;
3. Representatives of state and public cultural organizations;
4. Employees of RF high schools and universities.

Travel expenses, lodging and boarding are to be covered by participants.

The application for participation in the inauguration of the exhibition on September 21 and the Round Table on September 22 is to be submitted before September 15, 2014.

e-mail: roerich@icr.su

tel: 8(499) 271-34-04 (11 a.m. - 5 p.m.)

fax: 8(499) 271-34-23 (11 a.m. - 5 p.m.)

Media accreditation: tel. 7(499)788-7939 or e-mail: pr@icr.su.